No more waiting, no more wondering --

TTC's TimeLine tells you when your bus or streetcar is coming

Every TTC bus and streetcar stop is marked with its own individual telephone number. Jot down the numbers of the stops you use regularly and keep them handy near your phone. Or call 393-INFO to get the TimeLine number of the stop you want to use. Then just before you leave, call the TimeLine number for the stop you are planning to use. The computer voice will provide you with the scheduled arrival time of the next two or three transit vehicles. TimeLine works 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Use it every time you plan to take the TTC.

Take a minute -- read how to get the most information from this timetable...

- The map on the front cover shows the part of Metro Toronto served by this route.
- Inside -- there's a complete map of the route, and schedule information. Departure times from each end of the route are listed. First/last trips are shown in bold face type.
-  The clockface indicates the times each hour the bus is scheduled to leave the terminal between the times indicated.
- To calculate the approximate time a bus will reach your stop, count the red dots on the map between the terminal and your stop. Add 5 minutes travelling time between each dot. Add this time from the end of the route.
- Be at your stop a few minutes before the scheduled arrival time. But remember -- traffic and weather can sometimes slow service.
